THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA (PRC): ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES FREQUENTLY IMPOSED ON VESSELS

Local maritime authorities in the PRC have increased their efforts to monitor vessel operations in port areas. These efforts have led to increases in administrative penalties being imposed upon both vessels and seafarers found not to be in compliance with local, national and international regulations.

Examples of incidents which may lead to such penalties, and the quantum associated with each, are found in the attached table.

Eagle Ocean Marine recommend that Insureds take note of the information and be guided accordingly. Eagle Ocean Marine's correspondent, Oasis P&I Services, Ltd., are thanked most warmly for their assistance in this matter.

Yours faithfully,
